

THE WAR CR

AND OFFICIAL GAZETTE OF THE SALVATION ARMY IN CANADA AND NEWFOUNDLAND

International Headquarters: 101 Queen Victoria St., London, E.C.

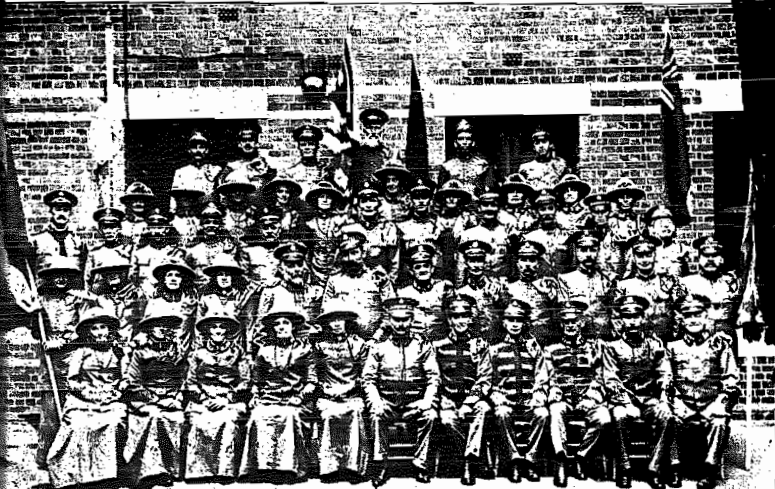

Territorial Headquarters, James and Albert St.

Year, No. 40.

Bramwell Booth, General.

TORONTO, JULY 4, 1914.

Price 10c

The Groups of Delegates at The C

MEMORIAL SERVICE AT LONDON, ONT.

Sympathy of Civic Authorities, Ministers, and All Classes.

One thing has been very noticeable as a result of this terrible disaster to the "Empress of Ireland" and the loss of so many dear comrades (writes Adjutant Smith, of London, Ont.), and it is the kind and tender sympathy shown by the people outside The Army, and especially the ministers and members of other Churches.

When the full import of the disaster came upon the people of London and vicinity, I was kept at the "Empress" for hours, considering not only to give what news I could to friends of those on board or thought to be on board that ill-fated ship.

As soon as it was announced that a Memorial Service would be held, His Worship Mayor Graham approached me, desiring that the city and churches unite with us, as they wished to express their sympathy and regard for The Army, and also to honour the twenty-two London citizens who lost their lives.

In Victoria Park that Sunday afternoon, fully twenty-five hundred people assembled and stood in the front sun to give expression to their sympathy and honour the dead.

References to the disaster were made, not only in the churches of London, but also all over the London Division, on the Sunday following, and many beautiful tributes were paid our comrades who were perished in the face of death. Letters poured in also from friends and comrades, and many were the expressions of thankfulness that God had spared our dear Major. When given out that the Major would conduct a solemn service in Auditorium, it was packed long before the hour announced.

Many of the disappointed people outside, Adjutant Ash went to Citadel, which also was packed to do so, and many turned away. Major went and addressed them after he was through at the auditorium.

People not only listened with interest to the Major, as he told the story of the disaster, but also to hear his own story, and to hear his own story, and to hear his own story.

Memorial Draping over the entrance to London T. (Ont.) Citadel.

but to hear from all classes words of sympathy for the great loss we have suffered. Many tributes were paid to the Major, who had, when stationed in this part of the world, been a help and blessing to the people who were inquiring.

As soon as it was announced that a Memorial Service would be held, His Worship Mayor Graham approached me, desiring that the city and churches unite with us, as they wished to express their sympathy and regard for The Army, and also to honour the twenty-two London citizens who lost their lives.

In Victoria Park that Sunday afternoon, fully twenty-five hundred people assembled and stood in the front sun to give expression to their sympathy and honour the dead.

References to the disaster were made, not only in the churches of London, but also all over the London Division, on the Sunday following, and many beautiful tributes were paid our comrades who were perished in the face of death.

Letters poured in also from friends and comrades, and many were the expressions of thankfulness that God had spared our dear Major. When given out that the Major would conduct a solemn service in Auditorium, it was packed long before the hour announced.

Many of the disappointed people outside, Adjutant Ash went to Citadel, which also was packed to do so, and many turned away. Major went and addressed them after he was through at the auditorium.

People not only listened with interest to the Major, as he told the story of the disaster, but also to hear his own story, and to hear his own story, and to hear his own story.

Memorial Draping over the entrance to London T. (Ont.) Citadel.

but to hear from all classes words of sympathy for the great loss we have suffered. Many tributes were paid to the Major, who had, when stationed in this part of the world, been a help and blessing to the people who were inquiring.

On the Way to The I.C.C.

SOME NOTES FROM OUR SPECIAL CORRESPONDENTS WITH THE VARIOUS PARTIES.

THE "TEUTONIC" PARTY.

Voyaging Under the Shadow of Sorrow—Impressive Meetings on Board—Four Souls Were Saved.

The "Teutonic" left Montreal at nine o'clock on Sunday morning. The Salvation Army party on board numbered twenty-seven, twenty of whom were Officers.

The morning service, which was conducted by the Purser, was very impressive, and the beautiful hymn, "Eternal Father, strong to save," a prayer for those in peril on the deep," was sung with much feeling.

During the special training arranged to take them to the Royal Albert Hall for the opening of the Congress.

On the "MONGOLIAN."

The Voyage of the Newfoundland Party.

(By Adjutant Wallace White.)

We left St. John's, Nfld., at 4:30 p.m. on Monday, June 1st, and on the first part of our passage were delayed by fog and ice. After we got clear of the coast, we had it fair until we were nearing the Irish Coast, and then we had it a little stormy.

Several meetings were held on the voyage, at which several of the officers and crew attended.

On Saturday we sent a message to the Salvationists on board the SS. "Teutonic," worded as follows:—

Newfoundland party sent Salvation love and greetings. All well. In less than an hour we received a reply worded as follows:—

Twenty-seven Salvationists on board; all well. Message. We were delighted to be able to greet each other upon the open seas at the distance of three hundred miles apart.

Our boat was delayed by fog and from this disaster. This amount was collected by the Rev. W. J. Sanderson, from his people in Greenock, whose hearts were so stirred, they felt they must do something to help the sufferers.

Major Morris, as well as all the dear comrades who are left behind, to give expression to their sympathy and kind regard.

Major Morris, as well as all the dear comrades who are left behind, to give expression to their sympathy and kind regard.

Major Morris, as well as all the dear comrades who are left behind, to give expression to their sympathy and kind regard.

Major Morris, as well as all the dear comrades who are left behind, to give expression to their sympathy and kind regard.

Major Morris, as well as all the dear comrades who are left behind, to give expression to their sympathy and kind regard.

ice, and we did not dock at Liverpool till Tuesday morning. Army representatives met our party at Liverpool and Euston Station, directing each to their respective billeting, everything working out satisfactorily.

It was a real pleasure to Mrs. Taylor and myself to find ourselves billeted with Major and Mrs. Pope, the Major having spent a number of years in Canada in the early days.

We are within a few steps of the historic Congress Hall! The whole neighbourhood is alive with Salvationists of different nationalities, and a huge procession has just swept down Lincoln road on its way to the special training arranged to take them to the Royal Albert Hall for the opening of the Congress.

On the "MONGOLIAN."

The Voyage of the Newfoundland Party.

(By Adjutant Wallace White.)

We left St. John's, Nfld., at 4:30 p.m. on Monday, June 1st, and on the first part of our passage were delayed by fog and ice. After we got clear of the coast, we had it fair until we were nearing the Irish Coast, and then we had it a little stormy.

Several meetings were held on the voyage, at which several of the officers and crew attended.

On Saturday we sent a message to the Salvationists on board the SS. "Teutonic," worded as follows:—

Newfoundland party sent Salvation love and greetings. All well. In less than an hour we received a reply worded as follows:—

Twenty-seven Salvationists on board; all well. Message. We were delighted to be able to greet each other upon the open seas at the distance of three hundred miles apart.

Our boat was delayed by fog and from this disaster. This amount was collected by the Rev. W. J. Sanderson, from his people in Greenock, whose hearts were so stirred, they felt they must do something to help the sufferers.

Major Morris, as well as all the dear comrades who are left behind, to give expression to their sympathy and kind regard.

Major Morris, as well as all the dear comrades who are left behind, to give expression to their sympathy and kind regard.

Major Morris, as well as all the dear comrades who are left behind, to give expression to their sympathy and kind regard.

Major Morris, as well as all the dear comrades who are left behind, to give expression to their sympathy and kind regard.

Major Morris, as well as all the dear comrades who are left behind, to give expression to their sympathy and kind regard.

Major Morris, as well as all the dear comrades who are left behind, to give expression to their sympathy and kind regard.

WEDDING AT ST. STEPHEN.

Captains McKevey and McAvoy United in Matrimony by Staff-Captain Coombs.

Staff-Captain and Mrs. Coombs went to St. Stephen for the weekend, and had good audiences all day on Sunday. On Monday night they officiated at the wedding of Captain McKevey and McAvoy. The wedding took place in the vestry of the Methodist Church, the officiating being done by the staff-captain.

The hour set for the ceremony was eight o'clock, and when that time arrived, the steady rain fell over three hundred people being present.

During the ceremony, Staff-Captain and Mrs. Coombs were assisted by Captain McKevey and Corps Cadet Dora Murray on their left, and Captain McAvoy and Lieutenant McKevey on their right.

The ceremony was very impressive, and the wedding party and friends at the Orange Hall.

After supper the County Master of the Orange Association for Charlotte County, told in a few, well-chosen words of his appreciation of the work done by the Salvationists in their efforts to help the poor and the suffering.

On the "MONGOLIAN."

The Voyage of the Newfoundland Party.

(By Adjutant Wallace White.)

We left St. John's, Nfld., at 4:30 p.m. on Monday, June 1st, and on the first part of our passage were delayed by fog and ice. After we got clear of the coast, we had it fair until we were nearing the Irish Coast, and then we had it a little stormy.

Several meetings were held on the voyage, at which several of the officers and crew attended.

On Saturday we sent a message to the Salvationists on board the SS. "Teutonic," worded as follows:—

Newfoundland party sent Salvation love and greetings. All well. In less than an hour we received a reply worded as follows:—

Twenty-seven Salvationists on board; all well. Message. We were delighted to be able to greet each other upon the open seas at the distance of three hundred miles apart.

Our boat was delayed by fog and from this disaster. This amount was collected by the Rev. W. J. Sanderson, from his people in Greenock, whose hearts were so stirred, they felt they must do something to help the sufferers.

Major Morris, as well as all the dear comrades who are left behind, to give expression to their sympathy and kind regard.

Major Morris, as well as all the dear comrades who are left behind, to give expression to their sympathy and kind regard.

Major Morris, as well as all the dear comrades who are left behind, to give expression to their sympathy and kind regard.

Major Morris, as well as all the dear comrades who are left behind, to give expression to their sympathy and kind regard.

CANADIANS AT CONGRESS HALL.

Colonel Mapp in Charge—Great Memorial Service in Honour of Canada's Glorified Delegates.

(By Captain Tuttle.)

The visit of the Canadian Party to the Congress Hall was not to be remembered for genuine inspiration and indelible impression on the minds of all who attended.

Colonel Mapp, former Chief Secretary for Canada, was in charge, and his own inspiring words, sufficiency and impressively guided them, repeatedly drawing attention to the absence of our beloved and glorified leaders, Commissioner and Mrs. Rees and Colonel and Mrs. McKevey, in whose stead he led.

The Congress Hall is famous for its highest meeting place for the search, and spiritual power, surely the morning meeting could not be surpassed.

On the "MONGOLIAN."

The Voyage of the Newfoundland Party.

(By Adjutant Wallace White.)

We left St. John's, Nfld., at 4:30 p.m. on Monday, June 1st, and on the first part of our passage were delayed by fog and ice. After we got clear of the coast, we had it fair until we were nearing the Irish Coast, and then we had it a little stormy.

Several meetings were held on the voyage, at which several of the officers and crew attended.

On Saturday we sent a message to the Salvationists on board the SS. "Teutonic," worded as follows:—

Newfoundland party sent Salvation love and greetings. All well. In less than an hour we received a reply worded as follows:—

Twenty-seven Salvationists on board; all well. Message. We were delighted to be able to greet each other upon the open seas at the distance of three hundred miles apart.

Our boat was delayed by fog and from this disaster. This amount was collected by the Rev. W. J. Sanderson, from his people in Greenock, whose hearts were so stirred, they felt they must do something to help the sufferers.

Major Morris, as well as all the dear comrades who are left behind, to give expression to their sympathy and kind regard.

Major Morris, as well as all the dear comrades who are left behind, to give expression to their sympathy and kind regard.

Major Morris, as well as all the dear comrades who are left behind, to give expression to their sympathy and kind regard.

Major Morris, as well as all the dear comrades who are left behind, to give expression to their sympathy and kind regard.

Major Morris, as well as all the dear comrades who are left behind, to give expression to their sympathy and kind regard.

Commissioner McKie

CONDUCTS MEETINGS AT TWO TORONTO CORPS—THE AUDIENCE CAPTIVATED BY HIS ORIGINAL METHODS, AND SINNERS SMITTEN BY HIS STRAIGHT ATTACKS ON SIN—TWENTY SURRENDERS.

VERY unconventional leader is Commissioner McKie. To have a set form for conducting meetings is an abomination to him: for he revels in constant variety, and is a perfect genius at keeping his congregations in a state of continual interest.

Colonel Mapp, former Chief Secretary for Canada, was in charge, and his own inspiring words, sufficiency and impressively guided them, repeatedly drawing attention to the absence of our beloved and glorified leaders, Commissioner and Mrs. Rees and Colonel and Mrs. McKevey, in whose stead he led.

The Congress Hall is famous for its highest meeting place for the search, and spiritual power, surely the morning meeting could not be surpassed.

On the "MONGOLIAN."

The Voyage of the Newfoundland Party.

(By Adjutant Wallace White.)

We left St. John's, Nfld., at 4:30 p.m. on Monday, June 1st, and on the first part of our passage were delayed by fog and ice. After we got clear of the coast, we had it fair until we were nearing the Irish Coast, and then we had it a little stormy.

Several meetings were held on the voyage, at which several of the officers and crew attended.

On Saturday we sent a message to the Salvationists on board the SS. "Teutonic," worded as follows:—

Newfoundland party sent Salvation love and greetings. All well. In less than an hour we received a reply worded as follows:—

Twenty-seven Salvationists on board; all well. Message. We were delighted to be able to greet each other upon the open seas at the distance of three hundred miles apart.

Our boat was delayed by fog and from this disaster. This amount was collected by the Rev. W. J. Sanderson, from his people in Greenock, whose hearts were so stirred, they felt they must do something to help the sufferers.

Major Morris, as well as all the dear comrades who are left behind, to give expression to their sympathy and kind regard.

Major Morris, as well as all the dear comrades who are left behind, to give expression to their sympathy and kind regard.

Major Morris, as well as all the dear comrades who are left behind, to give expression to their sympathy and kind regard.

Major Morris, as well as all the dear comrades who are left behind, to give expression to their sympathy and kind regard.

Major Morris, as well as all the dear comrades who are left behind, to give expression to their sympathy and kind regard.

Major Morris, as well as all the dear comrades who are left behind, to give expression to their sympathy and kind regard.

Commissioner McKie

CONDUCTS MEETINGS AT TWO TORONTO CORPS—THE AUDIENCE CAPTIVATED BY HIS ORIGINAL METHODS, AND SINNERS SMITTEN BY HIS STRAIGHT ATTACKS ON SIN—TWENTY SURRENDERS.

VERY unconventional leader is Commissioner McKie. To have a set form for conducting meetings is an abomination to him: for he revels in constant variety, and is a perfect genius at keeping his congregations in a state of continual interest.

Colonel Mapp, former Chief Secretary for Canada, was in charge, and his own inspiring words, sufficiency and impressively guided them, repeatedly drawing attention to the absence of our beloved and glorified leaders, Commissioner and Mrs. Rees and Colonel and Mrs. McKevey, in whose stead he led.

The Congress Hall is famous for its highest meeting place for the search, and spiritual power, surely the morning meeting could not be surpassed.

On the "MONGOLIAN."

The Voyage of the Newfoundland Party.

(By Adjutant Wallace White.)

We left St. John's, Nfld., at 4:30 p.m. on Monday, June 1st, and on the first part of our passage were delayed by fog and ice. After we got clear of the coast, we had it fair until we were nearing the Irish Coast, and then we had it a little stormy.

Several meetings were held on the voyage, at which several of the officers and crew attended.

On Saturday we sent a message to the Salvationists on board the SS. "Teutonic," worded as follows:—

Newfoundland party sent Salvation love and greetings. All well. In less than an hour we received a reply worded as follows:—

Twenty-seven Salvationists on board; all well. Message. We were delighted to be able to greet each other upon the open seas at the distance of three hundred miles apart.

Our boat was delayed by fog and from this disaster. This amount was collected by the Rev. W. J. Sanderson, from his people in Greenock, whose hearts were so stirred, they felt they must do something to help the sufferers.

Major Morris, as well as all the dear comrades who are left behind, to give expression to their sympathy and kind regard.

Major Morris, as well as all the dear comrades who are left behind, to give expression to their sympathy and kind regard.

Major Morris, as well as all the dear comrades who are left behind, to give expression to their sympathy and kind regard.

Major Morris, as well as all the dear comrades who are left behind, to give expression to their sympathy and kind regard.

Major Morris, as well as all the dear comrades who are left behind, to give expression to their sympathy and kind regard.

Major Morris, as well as all the dear comrades who are left behind, to give expression to their sympathy and kind regard.

Commissioner McKie

CONDUCTS MEETINGS AT TWO TORONTO CORPS—THE AUDIENCE CAPTIVATED BY HIS ORIGINAL METHODS, AND SINNERS SMITTEN BY HIS STRAIGHT ATTACKS ON SIN—TWENTY SURRENDERS.

VERY unconventional leader is Commissioner McKie. To have a set form for conducting meetings is an abomination to him: for he revels in constant variety, and is a perfect genius at keeping his congregations in a state of continual interest.

Colonel Mapp, former Chief Secretary for Canada, was in charge, and his own inspiring words, sufficiency and impressively guided them, repeatedly drawing attention to the absence of our beloved and glorified leaders, Commissioner and Mrs. Rees and Colonel and Mrs. McKevey, in whose stead he led.

The Congress Hall is famous for its highest meeting place for the search, and spiritual power, surely the morning meeting could not be surpassed.

On the "MONGOLIAN."

The Voyage of the Newfoundland Party.

(By Adjutant Wallace White.)

We left St. John's, Nfld., at 4:30 p.m. on Monday, June 1st, and on the first part of our passage were delayed by fog and ice. After we got clear of the coast, we had it fair until we were nearing the Irish Coast, and then we had it a little stormy.

Several meetings were held on the voyage, at which several of the officers and crew attended.

On Saturday we sent a message to the Salvationists on board the SS. "Teutonic," worded as follows:—

Newfoundland party sent Salvation love and greetings. All well. In less than an hour we received a reply worded as follows:—

Twenty-seven Salvationists on board; all well. Message. We were delighted to be able to greet each other upon the open seas at the distance of three hundred miles apart.

Our boat was delayed by fog and from this disaster. This amount was collected by the Rev. W. J. Sanderson, from his people in Greenock, whose hearts were so stirred, they felt they must do something to help the sufferers.

Major Morris, as well as all the dear comrades who are left behind, to give expression to their sympathy and kind regard.

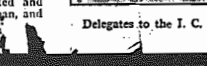

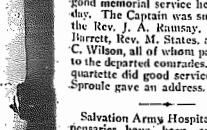

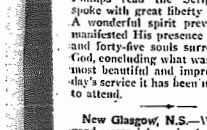

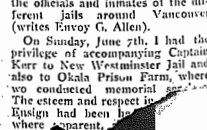

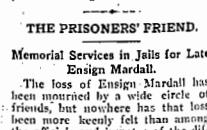

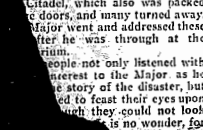

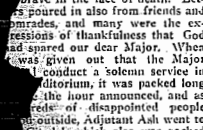

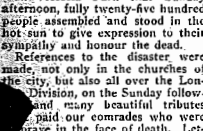

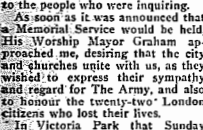

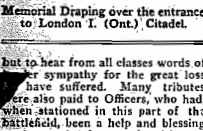

Major Morris, as well as all the dear comrades who are left behind, to give expression to their sympathy and kind regard.

Major Morris, as well as all the dear comrades who are left behind, to give expression to their sympathy and kind regard.

Major Morris, as well as all the dear comrades who are left behind, to give expression to their sympathy and kind regard.

Major Morris, as well as all the dear comrades who are left behind, to give expression to their sympathy and kind regard.

Major Morris, as well as all the dear comrades who are left behind, to give expression to their sympathy and kind regard.

PRINTED FOR THE Salvation Army in Canada, Newfoundland, Bermuda, and the West Indies, by the Army Printing House, 16 Albert Street, Toronto.

SEND US WHERE WE OUGHT TO GO!

It is a commonplace that the first duty of every soldier is obedience—soldier and officer alike—in the Salvation Army as well as in the Imperial Army. How otherwise can he expect to command? No army in the world could hold together long in the principle of conditional obedience. It would speedily degenerate into a mob. The man who would pick and choose his post on the battlefield might as well be acquainted and bear high rank, but let him not deceive himself; he would be no true-as-steel warrior—nothing more, in fact, than a feathered soldier.

"But," it may be objected, "I have my family to consider. In years gone by, when I was eager to volunteer for the hardest fight, I thought no one else to think of; now there is the health of my wife to look after and the education of our children to provide for." Just so; because of the wife and the children, in whose presence and on whose behalf one has entered into such solemn obligations, it is of all the more importance that one should be faithful to his vows. Inconsistency in the presence of wife and children—the mere thought is impossible.

Exceptional circumstances there may be, of course, and these are taken into consideration; but what is of prime importance is that the Soldier is that there should be a whole-hearted willingness to go where duty calls, always believing that appointments are made in the spirit of prayer and for the greatest good of the Organization. "Bless our Army, Send us where we ought to go." That is the spirit of the Salvationist—Colonel, Captain, or Soldier—before which the most stubborn difficulties have a way of disappearing into thin air.

There never was a time in Canada, we believe, when Officers accepted their appointment more happily or with more loyal and whole-souled devotion than at present.

HONOURS FOR CANADIANS.

Premier Borden and Many Others Receive Knighthood.

A number of distinguished Canadians received knighthood on the King's Birthday, among them being the Premier, who will be known as Sir Robert Borden. This honour has come as a consequence of his services to the Empire since he became Leader of the Government in 1911.

Others who have been made knights are as follows: Hon. George E. Foster, Minister of Finance; Commander, Senator Boucher de Boucherville; Hon. Adam Beck, of London, Ont.; J. A. M. Alway, of Winnipeg; Dr. Thomas C. McCreary, of Montreal; and Hon. William Sullivan, Chief Justice of Prince Edward Island.

Mr. McNaught, M.P. for North Toronto, becomes C.M.G., and W. E. Davidson, Governor of Newfound, becomes K.C.M.G. We congratulate all men upon their honours.

The King and The General.

OUR LEADER RECEIVED AT BUCKINGHAM PALACE.

It will be of the greatest interest to Salvationists the world over to know that His Majesty the King received The General in audience at Buckingham Palace on Monday, June 28th.

The General proceeded to the Palace from International Headquarters, accompanied by Colonel Unsworth.

At the moment of his arrival the King's Guard was being changed, and quite a large number of people were watching the ceremony as The General entered the Palace.

The royal attendant received The General at the door and escorted him to the inner waiting-room.

After the lapse of a few moments Lord Stamfordham appeared. Colonel Unsworth introduced The General to his Lordship, who spoke sympathetically.

"You spoke of The Army, General,"

"Yes, it was a great pleasure to me to find that His Majesty had taken so much interest in the Army, and the work we are doing in different parts of the world—especially in The Empire. And he especially in that warm terms his appreciation of that work, and his sympathy."

"I thanked His Majesty, and he then entered upon a most interesting and delightful conversation with me in the course of which he showed me not only his well-known interest in the well-being of the great mass of the people, but manifested a remarkable insight into many of the great questions of the day as they affect the less-fortunate and the sorrowful."

"The chief Officers, including Commissioner Lamb, Brigadiers Taylor and Greer, and Major McLean, all of whom were received by Mr. Perley in the High Commissioner's room. He most cordially welcomed them to London, and paid a special tribute to the services The Army rendered in Canada. He made especial reference to Canada's sympathy in the 'Empress of Ireland' disaster."

Mr. Perley accompanied the Officers to the street, where he was greatly cheered by the Salvationists and a large crowd of onlookers. While the Band played 'The Highland Lull' the company singing the words with tremendous zest. Mr. Perley repeated his message of welcome, sympathy, and good-will.

Headquarters, Toronto

Brigadier Bettbridge, with his wife and family, have arrived safely in Toronto.

Mr. Brigadier Walker, who, through 'The War Cry,' to express her gratitude to her friends who have written letters of sympathy in connection with the promotion to Glory of the Brigadier.

Mrs. Ensign Mandall, Lieutenant Reggie Simco, and Sister Mrs. Tardens also wish to thank the many friends who have sent messages of sympathy, in connection with the loss of husband, mother, and son respectively.

Mr. Brigadier Potter has been appointed Master of the Hamilton Rescue Home, and will enter upon her new duties almost immediately.

Colonel and Mrs. Jacobs, of whom old Canadian comrades will be pleased to hear that their health is greatly improved, recently left Los Angeles, Cal., for those lost in the recent disaster.

Major and Mrs. Attwell, Major Turpin, and Staff-Captain McDonald, together with other survivors of the disaster, recently conducted a one-day meeting at Christie's block incinerator, Toronto. A number raised their hands for prayer.

Envoy Brower Brown has also returned to his home in Ontario, after a fourteen-week trip to Bermuda and the Halifax Division. He visited schools, prisons, and hospitals, and in a public meeting, addressed the hundreds of souls forward seeking Salvation and Sanctification.

W. S. and L. E. Eastwood, Heaton, England, wish to assure relatives of those who perished in the recent shipping disaster of their sympathy and prayers.

In different parts of the world The Salvation Army has established 146 Slum Settlements.

Colonel Rothwell and West Indian Salvationists are to be congratulated on their latest Self-Denial triumph. Notwithstanding the closure of several Corps in the Panama Division, necessitated by the completion of the Canal and the consequent repatriation of nearly the whole of the workers, and the destructive fire at Georgetown, British Guiana, the Territory has raised $4,300, this being an advance of $300 on last year's total.

Some Features of the Current 'Young Soldier.'

This week's 'Young Soldier' contains a very interesting letter from Captain Parson describing the journey to England of the Canadian party on board the 'Calgarion.'

Adjutant Margaret McCreary also contributes a touching article in memoriam of little Willard Potter. Another article that you will want to read is entitled 'Junior's Meeting.' It describes how the New Zealand Delegation to the I. C. C. looked after the welfare of the children on board their ship during the long journey of thirteen thousand miles over the sea.

Pays a Visit to Canada's New Acting High Commissioner.

From a Toronto Press cable we learn that the Canadian Delegation to the I. C. C. marched through the West End of London on a visit to Canada's new Acting High Commissioner.

The chief Officers, including Commissioner Lamb, Brigadiers Taylor and Greer, and Major McLean, all of whom were received by Mr. Perley in the High Commissioner's room. He most cordially welcomed them to London, and paid a special tribute to the services The Army rendered in Canada. He made especial reference to Canada's sympathy in the 'Empress of Ireland' disaster."

Mr. Perley accompanied the Officers to the street, where he was greatly cheered by the Salvationists and a large crowd of onlookers. While the Band played 'The Highland Lull' the company singing the words with tremendous zest. Mr. Perley repeated his message of welcome, sympathy, and good-will.

Territorial Newslets.

Headquarters, Toronto

Brigadier Bettbridge, with his wife and family, have arrived safely in Toronto.

Mr. Brigadier Walker, who, through 'The War Cry,' to express her gratitude to her friends who have written letters of sympathy in connection with the promotion to Glory of the Brigadier.

Mrs. Ensign Mandall, Lieutenant Reggie Simco, and Sister Mrs. Tardens also wish to thank the many friends who have sent messages of sympathy, in connection with the loss of husband, mother, and son respectively.

Mr. Brigadier Potter has been appointed Master of the Hamilton Rescue Home, and will enter upon her new duties almost immediately.

Colonel and Mrs. Jacobs, of whom old Canadian comrades will be pleased to hear that their health is greatly improved, recently left Los Angeles, Cal., for those lost in the recent disaster.

Major and Mrs. Attwell, Major Turpin, and Staff-Captain McDonald, together with other survivors of the disaster, recently conducted a one-day meeting at Christie's block incinerator, Toronto. A number raised their hands for prayer.

Envoy Brower Brown has also returned to his home in Ontario, after a fourteen-week trip to Bermuda and the Halifax Division. He visited schools, prisons, and hospitals, and in a public meeting, addressed the hundreds of souls forward seeking Salvation and Sanctification.

W. S. and L. E. Eastwood, Heaton, England, wish to assure relatives of those who perished in the recent shipping disaster of their sympathy and prayers.

In different parts of the world The Salvation Army has established 146 Slum Settlements.

The Congress of All Nations.

(By Wire.)

A MAGNIFICENT TRIUMPH—40,000 PERSONS ATTEND "TWO DAYS WITH GOD"—CRYSTAL PALACE DAY DRAWS AN IMMENSE CROWD—FORTY EVENTS—PRESENTATION OF ADDRESSES TO GENERAL BY TERRITORIAL COMMANDERS—3,000 BANDSMEN TAKE PART IN MUSICAL SERVICE—GENERAL REVIEWS THIRTY THOUSAND SALVATIONISTS—MR. ASTOR'S GENEROSITY—PILGRIMAGE TO ABNEY PARK—DOINGS OF CANADIAN CONTINGENT.

The first event was the flag-hoisting ceremony, which was conducted by the Chief of the Staff. Flags of all the nations represented at the Congress were hoisted amid tumultuous applause from the vast host.

The General reviewed thirty thousand Salvationists.

The Canadians made a fine showing, and conducted two services. A vast multitude listened to The General's charge at the close of the day. He said: "I ask you to-night, with all my soul, with all the love I have for you, and with all the mighty faith I have in you, I ask you to live according to the light you have for the world's blessing."

Mr. W. W. Astor entertained five hundred of the Delegation to his estate at Cliveden. He wished to entertain all of them, but sufficient vehicles could not be obtained. There was a pilgrimage of the Delegates of all nations to Abney Park Cemetery to visit the graves of The Army Mother and of our Founder. The General gave an impressive address in the cemetery.

The Canadian Contingent were at Faling on Sunday, June 21st. Commissioner Whitmore was in charge. Splendid crowds attended the meetings in the Hippodrome, and a wonderful time of blessing resulted.

The Newfoundland Contingent were at Islington, led on by Brigadier and Mrs. Morehen. They had successful meetings.

JOHN BOND, Lieut.-Colonel.

hers, include some of the smallest Officers in the Salvation Army. Only one of the six native Officers possess the five-foot mark, and she can give inches to her companions.

Ensign Lien Gok Nio is perhaps the most notable Officer in the native army. She is a Chinese, has been an Officer for fifteen years, and has the honour of having established the first Army Corps amongst the natives.

The journey from Java occupied thirty-one days. Unable to conduct public prayer meetings on board, they had prayer meetings in their cabins.

West Indian Delegates. Of the West Indian party, nine are natives, and under the leadership of Staff-Captain Narraway, they form a striking quartet, a brass quintet, and a kazoob band. Singing, however, is their great forte.

They have never been to England before, and will long remember their first night in the country. It was bitterly cold. Not one of them had previously slept in an English bed, and instead of getting under the blankets, they got under the flannel cover—and they couldn't sleep for cold!

In route to England they stayed for a couple of days at Colon (Panama) and conducted several meetings, finishing with a musical festival in a church kindly loaned for the occasion. This was packed with a congregation of five hundred people and many were turned away.

The Korean Party. The Korean Delegation, a journey of fifty days, arrived at Clapham, Korea for the first national Congress.

Choon was one of the converts in Korea, and an Officer in the national Congress.

At Seoul, Capt. Park, for his brilliant general, Lieut. Kim, doctor.

the first to go on board was Commissioner Lucy

Booth-Hellberg, who was soon speaking words of loving welcome to the Commander.

The Delegates, having passed the customs, were at length ensconced in the compartments of two Salvation Army special trains. In the first two of which was the Commander, Commissioner Mrs. Booth-Hellberg, Commissioner and Mrs. Estill, Col. Peck, and many prominent members of the Staff.

The journey up from Southampton (the picturesque English rural scenery made a special appeal to the enthusiastic Delegates) was done in good time, both trains arriving within a few minutes of each other. Indeed, so well timed were they that they ran into opposite platforms almost simultaneously.

To the unbounded delight of the whole of the arriving Contingent, the strong, rich notes of the International Staff Band, which, it need not be said, had Colonel Mitchell at its head, could be heard playing "The Star-Spangled Banner."

Unconventional by nature, it was too much to expect the American Party to take such treatment "lying down." Nor did they. They responded to the inspiring music with a perfect thunderstorm of cheering, and an instant later every one of the men and women wore their distinctive and attractive uniform together with the red cowboy hats, were streaming out to the platform, where the Chief of the Staff, the British Commissioner, Commissioner Lamb, Commissioner Whitmore, supported by a number of Officers, had the Commander and her brilliant Contingent ten thousand welcomes to London and the Congress of the Nations.

Java's Contribution. The Dutch Indies I. C. C. Delegation, which consists of fifteen members.

Arrival of Americans. With over three thousand souls on board, and looking every ounce of her 4,600 tons, the R.M.S. "Olympic," carrying 687 of the United States 720 Delegates to the International Congress, made her stately way to her station, and with quietly tolerance avoided the fussy attentions of the small fleet of tenders ready to take from her mails and passengers.

Commander Eva Booth had been obliged to keep to her cabin throughout the whole voyage. The loss of her Canadian comrades had contributed in no small degree to her overwork condition.

As fellow-passengers with our comrades on the great vessel was ex-President Roosevelt, who listened with keen enjoyment to the playing of the Bands, and manifested his friendliness in a marked way, permitting himself to be photographed with our American Delegation.

En route wireless messages were exchanged between the "Olympic" and the "Aquitania," and Commissioner McKie, who was on-board the latter, sent words of comradeship from the ship.

the first to go on board was Commissioner Lucy

Koreans at the I. C. C.

Koreans at the I. C. C.

Booth-Hellberg, who was soon speaking words of loving welcome to the Commander.

The Delegates, having passed the customs, were at length ensconced in the compartments of two Salvation Army special trains. In the first two of which was the Commander, Commissioner Mrs. Booth-Hellberg, Commissioner and Mrs. Estill, Col. Peck, and many prominent members of the Staff.

The journey up from Southampton (the picturesque English rural scenery made a special appeal to the enthusiastic Delegates) was done in good time, both trains arriving within a few minutes of each other. Indeed, so well timed were they that they ran into opposite platforms almost simultaneously.

To the unbounded delight of the whole of the arriving Contingent, the strong, rich notes of the International Staff Band, which, it need not be said, had Colonel Mitchell at its head, could be heard playing "The Star-Spangled Banner."

Unconventional by nature, it was too much to expect the American Party to take such treatment "lying down." Nor did they. They responded to the inspiring music with a perfect thunderstorm of cheering, and an instant later every one of the men and women wore their distinctive and attractive uniform together with the red cowboy hats, were streaming out to the platform, where the Chief of the Staff, the British Commissioner, Commissioner Lamb, Commissioner Whitmore, supported by a number of Officers, had the Commander and her brilliant Contingent ten thousand welcomes to London and the Congress of the Nations.

Java's Contribution. The Dutch Indies I. C. C. Delegation, which consists of fifteen members.

Arrival of Americans. With over three thousand souls on board, and looking every ounce of her 4,600 tons, the R.M.S. "Olympic," carrying 687 of the United States 720 Delegates to the International Congress, made her stately way to her station, and with quietly tolerance avoided the fussy attentions of the small fleet of tenders ready to take from her mails and passengers.

Commander Eva Booth had been obliged to keep to her cabin throughout the whole voyage. The loss of her Canadian comrades had contributed in no small degree to her overwork condition.

As fellow-passengers with our comrades on the great vessel was ex-President Roosevelt, who listened with keen enjoyment to the playing of the Bands, and manifested his friendliness in a marked way, permitting himself to be photographed with our American Delegation.

En route wireless messages were exchanged between the "Olympic" and the "Aquitania," and Commissioner McKie, who was on-board the latter, sent words of comradeship from the ship.

the first to go on board was Commissioner Lucy

Koreans at the I. C. C.

Koreans at the I. C. C.

Touching Memorial Services Throughout Territory.

MAJOR MORRIS AT ST. THOMAS, ONT.

Large Crowd to Hear Him Speak of Escape from Sinking Steamer.

(By Wire)

Major Morris conducted a big meeting at St. Thomas on Sunday night, June 1st. The building was packed to hear his thrilling story of his marvellous escape from the sinking "Empress of Ireland."

The Major received a great welcome, everybody being delighted to see him once again. The audience rose and sang, "God be with you till we meet again," as he entered. During the service the Band played the Dead March in Saul.

It was a very impressive service, and many were moved to tears. There was much conviction, and two souls came to the Mercy Seat—C. A.

Hamilton, Bermuda.

Because of the distance we are from Toronto, and late arrival of news, we were unable to hold our memorial service in union with our Canadian comrades (writes Adjutant Burton). Consequently, Sunday, June 14th, was decided upon.

From the moment the first cable brought the news of the shocking disaster which had befallen the "Empress of Ireland," sympathy for the victims has been extended to us from people of every walk in life.

The memorial service gave full expression of the way Hamilton people are moved by it. Previous to the meeting, we met for prayer. A memorial march then started down the street to the strains of the Dead March in Saul. Crowds thronged the streets, and bared their heads as the procession moved past them. On arrival at the Hall, we found it almost full, and within five minutes the standing room was at a premium, and many were turned away.

The Hall was draped with purple and white, offset by many beautiful palms. A motto bearing the words of our Commissioner, "God's will be done," hung across the back of the platform, while a beautiful wreath of native flowers, presented by Bandmaster Simmon's family, hung below the motto, and encircled the much-cherished phrase of the Salvation Army, "Promote us to Glory."

The service was most impressive throughout. The Band took a very active part, in memory of the fact that so many Bandmen lost their lives, and that the Bermuda Band was at the last I. C. C. Sister Mrs. Beckwith, spoke very feelingly, tally mentioning some of the cable messages, also of sympathy from Dr. McLeod's Church, of Toronto. Many ears, several hands prayer, and God's determination to fight on.

sters and Juniors rendered selections, and the Band assisted. For the following week-end, our meetings were led by Ensign Penfold and Ensign Duncan. A letter of sympathy, from the Orillia Town Council, was read, and also one from the Orillia Lodge of Freemasons. Eight souls surrendered.

Barlscourt (Toronto).

Major and Mrs. Miller, assisted by Adjutant and Mrs. Thompson, led the week-end meetings.

The Sunday afternoon and night meetings took the form of a local memorial for the ten comrades of this Corps who went down with the "Empress of Ireland."

The Major was invited by Captain Weeks to lead on, as Adjutant Green and Stitt worked in his absence, and were members of this Corps.

Bandmaster Stagg spoke on behalf of the three comrades who went down with Bandmen E. Aldridge, E. Ford, and T. Meachier.

Three Candidates, A. Davis, B. Bullock, and Violet Hicks, sang a trio in memory of Candidate Jessie Green. This song was a favourite of these comrades, and with much emotion it was sung by the remaining three of the family, spoke.

Mrs. Major Miller's address at night touched all hearts. Two souls professed Salvation.

Ottawa I.

An impressive memorial service was conducted on Sunday evening, June 7th, by Staff-Captain Goodwin. The Citadel was crowded.

Bandmaster Harris, who knew the late Bandman May, who was lost in the disaster, gave a touching address. The Bandmaster also sang "Crossing the Bar."

Rev. J. H. Turnbull expressed his grief, and as the Band played the Dead March, the audience rose. The closing address was given by Staff-Captain Goodwin.

Brantford, Ont.

On Sunday, May 24th, six comrades held us farewell "for a short time," but of that number, only two now survive (writes M. S.). They are Brothers Lawler, Senior and Junior.

Large numbers have attended all services since the disaster.

A large civic memorial was held on Sunday afternoon, Mayor Spence and Archbishop MacKenzie were present.

The Grand Opera House was used for the evening service. A large number of people were present and a number of comrades spoke.

A procession was held just before this service. Mr. Lawler and his wife were conveyed, at the head of the procession, in a rig to the Opera House.

Ligar Street (Toronto).

On Sunday, June 14th, memorial services were held for the nine comrades who were lost in the recent disaster. The services were conducted by Adjutant and Mrs. Hod-dinott, and resulted in ten souls at the Mercy Seat. On the Thursday following, Envoy Hancock gave all of which six young people re-consecrated themselves to the service of Jesus Christ.

On Sunday, June 21st, the services were conducted by Mrs. Bridgier Kimball. Her talks were very much enjoyed. The night meeting was held as a memorial for the late Bandman Humphries. His life has left a beautiful influence, and many touching tributes were paid to the goodness of his character. On Monday, June 22nd, again turned into joy when six souls knelt at the Mercy Seat.

Kingston, Ont.

A memorial service was held in the Citadel on Sunday afternoon. The Hall was crowded to the doors.

Major Shaw presided, and many prominent citizens had seats on the platform. Mayor Shaw and several other public and ministerial gentlemen took active part in the meeting. The Male Choir sang, and the Band rendered the Dead March.

At five o'clock the children marched to the wharf at the foot of Clarence Street, and there cast flowers upon the waters, after which they sang "Till we meet at Jesus' feet." Hundreds of people watched the casting of the flowers into the bay, and many were in tears.

Mrs. Edgins Smith conducted the regular Army memorial service on Sunday evening (writes J. M.). A large number were present, and the close of the service few souls surrendered.

Ensign Owen presided, and with him on the platform were Captain Zerbin, Rev. H. W. Crews, Rev. Dr. A. Moore, Rev. J. E. Patterson, and Rev. Mr. Terryberry. The choir of the St. Paul Street Methodist Church was also present. Recent deaths were mentioned, and one three souls came forward for Sacrificion.

New Aberdeen, N.S.—The meetings on Sunday, May 1st, were led by Mrs. Captain Laing and Lieutenant Ellis, of Toronto; the latter having come to assist Mrs. Laing in the absence of the Captain, who has gone to the I. C. C. (writes W. M.). One soul came forward on Sunday night.

A memorial service was held here on June 7th. The Band, under Bandmaster Coody, played suitable music. Short addresses were given by Mrs. Short, addresses were given by Mrs. Sergeant-Major Coody, and Mrs. Bond. Three souls came forward.

When you have read this please pass it to a friend who will be likely to do so.

TO GLORY

TO GLORY

TO GLORY

TO GLORY

TO GLORY

TO GLORY

TO GLORY

TO GLORY

TO GLORY

TO GLORY

TO GLORY

TO GLORY

TO GLORY

TO GLORY

Lethbridge, Alta.

The memorial services at Lethbridge have had a stirring effect upon the city. We praise the Lord for the six men and women who came out on Sunday night, following a week of meetings that were held at the Knox Presbyterian Church, and presided over by the Rev. Cameron. On the platform were the Rev. Dr. Ross (Baptist), the Rev. Bryan (Presbyterian), the Rev. Cobblestick (Methodist), and the Rev. Mr. McMillan (Anglican). Tuesday night Adjutant Kemp led a united praise meeting, at which two women volunteered to the Penitent-form. The Adjutant remained with us over Sunday, and conducted the memorial service, at which the class to the far summits over which longed, sang a touching song entitled "Gone from our home." The Band played Handel's Dead March, after which the Adjutant spoke.

Brother Tulloch spoke again on Mrs. Hunter's restoration to health ten years ago, and her sacrifice and devoted life to the cause of the poor. One man came forward for Salvation, making nine during the funeral services.

Peterboro, Ont.

Little did Peterboro Band think, as they stood waiting for the train, which was to take them to Montreal, that news of this terrible disaster would be the first thing to reach them, even before they reached that city. Everybody was happy, and a crowd of the Army's friends were there to say good-bye.

Mrs. Adjutant McElheney accompanied the Band as far as Montreal. At every meeting on Sunday the Temple was crowded, and at the close of the Sunday night meeting six souls surrendered.

Brother Blunt, in the absence of Mrs. McElheney, who was sick, led on, and Sister Mrs. Leggett spoke to the late comrades with whom she was personally acquainted. After Brother McKinley had sung, Sister Mrs. Lang spoke, and Mrs. Blunt soloed, and Brother Blunt took the lesson. The Band and Songsters did good service throughout the day.

St. Catharines, Ont.—A large number of persons attended the memorial service held here on Sunday evening, June 7th.

Ensign Owen presided, and with him on the platform were Captain Zerbin, Rev. H. W. Crews, Rev. Dr. A. Moore, Rev. J. E. Patterson, and Rev. Mr. Terryberry. The choir of the St. Paul Street Methodist Church was also present. Recent deaths were mentioned, and one three souls came forward for Sacrificion.

New Aberdeen, N.S.—The meetings on Sunday, May 1st, were led by Mrs. Captain Laing and Lieutenant Ellis, of Toronto; the latter having come to assist Mrs. Laing in the absence of the Captain, who has gone to the I. C. C. (writes W. M.). One soul came forward on Sunday night.

A memorial service was held here on June 7th. The Band, under Bandmaster Coody, played suitable music. Short addresses were given by Mrs. Short, addresses were given by Mrs. Sergeant-Major Coody, and Mrs. Bond. Three souls came forward.

When you have read this please pass it to a friend who will be likely to do so.

TO GLORY

TO GLORY

TO GLORY

TO GLORY

TO GLORY

TO GLORY

TO GLORY

TO GLORY

TO GLORY

TO GLORY

TO GLORY

TO GLORY

CANADA'S NOBLE DEAD.

(Continued from Page 5.)

sonal trials. We have been stunned by this disaster, but we praise God from the beginning using this calamity to speak to the world?"

Brigadier Taylor and Mrs. Major Fraser are called up to the platform, but there isn't time for both of them to speak, and Mrs. Fraser is chosen to represent the diminished Canadian Contingent. Her appearance is the real triumph, and intensifies the hush, which all the evening has reigned like a spell over the multitude. She is the solitary, articulate expression of a nation's grief, of her frail, piping voice is almost lost in the expansive vault of the Albert Hall, but it does not fail to penetrate to the far summits over which pallid, eager faces are peering.

"You will understand," she said plaintively, "when I say there are moments in our experiences when death seems to express so fully the feelings of our hearts, and as I stand before this vast congregation to-night, I feel utterly helpless in trying to convey to you my heart's sorrow."

"Some two weeks ago we intended leaving home for this journey. It was my first venture from my native land, and we have looked forward to it with a great deal of pleasure. I am not saying as a Canadian that we are patriotic, but, on the contrary, we are a very loyal class of people, and on certain occasions we lay on one side our rank and file capacities and mix and mingle as neighbours, as brothers, and sisters, and we share each others' sorrow and we grieve in each others' joys, and we have talked and planned and longed for this visit. The day that I left home, we were packed with many messages of love and good-wishes and expressions of affection from our friends. But God has willed otherwise. We do not know why, and we cannot understand it, but there is one thing, I am perfectly sure of, what He wills is best."

"I have been thinking of Mrs. Blaindred, and I can remember the first time I met her at a Christmas gathering. I wished her the warmest of the season, and with tears rolling down her cheeks, she said, 'as creature comforts are concerned I have everything I want, but, oh, my heart does so long to help somebody! I said, 'My dear, have a little patience, and I am sure you will find plenty to do. And there, and many a home will miss her word of comfort and willing help, for truly she became a servant of all."

"As Mrs. Blaindred and I went to a meeting one Tuesday night, I asked her if she would be coming to the Congress. 'Well,' she said, 'I did not expect to go, and I really do not want to go in a way, because I am such a poor sailor. But the Major came home the other day and said, 'Well, my dear, pack your box and get ready, because I have looked you, and I replied, 'What made you do that. I am such a bad sailor! I would much rather you went without me,' and he turned and said, 'Well, dear, life's too short to be without you.' It was shorter than he reckoned on."

"We won't fully understand our loss until we have gone to our homes. When we see the vacant faces and the strangers come in, then we shall know what we have lost. But though I cannot understand, I can say with the dear Commissioner, 'Thy will be done, O God.'" cup of sorrow is running over, for in addition to his only boy, a lad of such spirit and promise, he has within the last few weeks lost his mother and sister. But he hears up bravely, speaks of the courage and quiet submission of his wife, and is able to say, in spite of all, "Blessed be the name of the Lord."

One of the most impressive moments of this heart-stirring evening was when the huge audience rose silently to its feet in endorsing the message which was sent to Canada.

St. Catharines, Ont.—A large number of persons attended the memorial service held here on Sunday evening, June 7th.

Ensign Owen presided, and with him on the platform were Captain Zerbin, Rev. H. W. Crews, Rev. Dr. A. Moore, Rev. J. E. Patterson, and Rev. Mr. Terryberry. The choir of the St. Paul Street Methodist Church was also present. Recent deaths were mentioned, and one three souls came forward for Sacrificion.

New Aberdeen, N.S.—The meetings on Sunday, May 1st, were led by Mrs. Captain Laing and Lieutenant Ellis, of Toronto; the latter having come to assist Mrs. Laing in the absence of the Captain, who has gone to the I. C. C. (writes W. M.). One soul came forward on Sunday night.

A memorial service was held here on June 7th. The Band, under Bandmaster Coody, played suitable music. Short addresses were given by Mrs. Short, addresses were given by Mrs. Sergeant-Major Coody, and Mrs. Bond. Three souls came forward.

When you have read this please pass it to a friend who will be likely to do so.

TO GLORY

TO GLORY

TO GLORY

TO GLORY

TO GLORY

TO GLORY

Soldiers Should Obey.

THE LATE GENERAL DECLARED THAT WITHOUT OBEDIENCE GOVERNMENT IS AN IMPOSSIBILITY.

OBEDIENCE is an essential principle of all governments, human or divine. Without it there would be confusion even in Heaven; much more so must the absence lead to disorder and every evil work on earth.

Without obedience, government is an impossibility. Every Salvation Soldier must therefore render cheerful and willing obedience to the command of his superior Officers. Of course, this is supposing that all such commands are always in accordance with truth and righteousness; but if they are so, then he must seek to carry them through without a question.

Obedience supposes that the Soldier relies on the wisdom and goodness of his Officers, believing that they have the Spirit of God, and will only command him to do what is right.

He should see that the carrying out of this principle of obedience is a duty he owes alike to God and men; that the Bible requires that he should obey those who are over him in the Lord, and that it is impossible for anything very extensive or impressive to be done towards saying souls without it.

The Soldier will feel also that obedience is a means of grace and growth, helping to make strong and useful men and women, and fitting them for positions of usefulness. Those who have never learnt to obey are not fit to command.

The obedience of the Soldier must be prompt; that it, must be given at the moment. The carrying out of this principle of obedience is a duty he owes alike to God and men; that the Bible requires that he should obey those who are over him in the Lord, and that it is impossible for anything very extensive or impressive to be done towards saying souls without it.

The Soldier will feel also that obedience is a means of grace and growth, helping to make strong and useful men and women, and fitting them for positions of usefulness. Those who have never learnt to obey are not fit to command.

The obedience of the Soldier must be prompt; that it, must be given at the moment. The carrying out of this principle of obedience is a duty he owes alike to God and men; that the Bible requires that he should obey those who are over him in the Lord, and that it is impossible for anything very extensive or impressive to be done towards saying souls without it.

The Soldier will feel also that obedience is a means of grace and growth, helping to make strong and useful men and women, and fitting them for positions of usefulness. Those who have never learnt to obey are not fit to command.

The obedience of the Soldier must be prompt; that it, must be given at the moment. The carrying out of this principle of obedience is a duty he owes alike to God and men; that the Bible requires that he should obey those who are over him in the Lord, and that it is impossible for anything very extensive or impressive to be done towards saying souls without it.

The Soldier will feel also that obedience is a means of grace and growth, helping to make strong and useful men and women, and fitting them for positions of usefulness. Those who have never learnt to obey are not fit to command.

The obedience of the Soldier must be prompt; that it, must be given at the moment. The carrying out of this principle of obedience is a duty he owes alike to God and men; that the Bible requires that he should obey those who are over him in the Lord, and that it is impossible for anything very extensive or impressive to be done towards saying souls without it.

The Soldier will feel also that obedience is a means of grace and growth, helping to make strong and useful men and women, and fitting them for positions of usefulness. Those who have never learnt to obey are not fit to command.

The obedience of the Soldier must be prompt; that it, must be given at the moment. The carrying out of this principle of obedience is a duty he owes alike to God and men; that the Bible requires that he should obey those who are over him in the Lord, and that it is impossible for anything very extensive or impressive to be done towards saying souls without it.

The Soldier will feel also that obedience is a means of grace and growth, helping to make strong and useful men and women, and fitting them for positions of usefulness. Those who have never learnt to obey are not fit to command.

The obedience of the Soldier must be prompt; that it, must be given at the moment. The carrying out of this principle of obedience is a duty he owes alike to God and men; that the Bible requires that he should obey those who are over him in the Lord, and that it is impossible for anything very extensive or impressive to be done towards saying souls without it.

The Soldier will feel also that obedience is a means of grace and growth, helping to make strong and useful men and women, and fitting them for positions of usefulness. Those who have never learnt to obey are not fit to command.

The obedience of the Soldier must be prompt; that it, must be given at the moment. The carrying out of this principle of obedience is a duty he owes alike to God and men; that the Bible requires that he should obey those who are over him in the Lord, and that it is impossible for anything very extensive or impressive to be done towards saying souls without it.

The Soldier will feel also that obedience is a means of grace and growth, helping to make strong and useful men and women, and fitting them for positions of usefulness. Those who have never learnt to obey are not fit to command.

The obedience of the Soldier must be prompt; that it, must be given at the moment. The carrying out of this principle of obedience is a duty he owes alike to God and men; that the Bible requires that he should obey those who are over him in the Lord, and that it is impossible for anything very extensive or impressive to be done towards saying souls without it.

Soldiers Should Obey.

THE LATE GENERAL DECLARED THAT WITHOUT OBEDIENCE GOVERNMENT IS AN IMPOSSIBILITY.

OBEDIENCE is an essential principle of all governments, human or divine. Without it there would be confusion even in Heaven; much more so must the absence lead to disorder and every evil work on earth.

Without obedience, government is an impossibility. Every Salvation Soldier must therefore render cheerful and willing obedience to the command of his superior Officers. Of course, this is supposing that all such commands are always in accordance with truth and righteousness; but if they are so, then he must seek to carry them through without a question.

Obedience supposes that the Soldier relies on the wisdom and goodness of his Officers, believing that they have the Spirit of God, and will only command him to do what is right.

He should see that the carrying out of this principle of obedience is a duty he owes alike to God and men; that the Bible requires that he should obey those who are over him in the Lord, and that it is impossible for anything very extensive or impressive to be done towards saying souls without it.

The Soldier will feel also that obedience is a means of grace and growth, helping to make strong and useful men and women, and fitting them for positions of usefulness. Those who have never learnt to obey are not fit to command.

The obedience of the Soldier must be prompt; that it, must be given at the moment. The carrying out of this principle of obedience is a duty he owes alike to God and men; that the Bible requires that he should obey those who are over him in the Lord, and that it is impossible for anything very extensive or impressive to be done towards saying souls without it.

The Soldier will feel also that obedience is a means of grace and growth, helping to make strong and useful men and women, and fitting them for positions of usefulness. Those who have never learnt to obey are not fit to command.

The obedience of the Soldier must be prompt; that it, must be given at the moment. The carrying out of this principle of obedience is a duty he owes alike to God and men; that the Bible requires that he should obey those who are over him in the Lord, and that it is impossible for anything very extensive or impressive to be done towards saying souls without it.

The Soldier will feel also that obedience is a means of grace and growth, helping to make strong and useful men and women, and fitting them for positions of usefulness. Those who have never learnt to obey are not fit to command.

The obedience of the Soldier must be prompt; that it, must be given at the moment. The carrying out of this principle of obedience is a duty he owes alike to God and men; that the Bible requires that he should obey those who are over him in the Lord, and that it is impossible for anything very extensive or impressive to be done towards saying souls without it.

The Soldier will feel also that obedience is a means of grace and growth, helping to make strong and useful men and women, and fitting them for positions of usefulness. Those who have never learnt to obey are not fit to command.

The obedience of the Soldier must be prompt; that it, must be given at the moment. The carrying out of this principle of obedience is a duty he owes alike to God and men; that the Bible requires that he should obey those who are over him in the Lord, and that it is impossible for anything very extensive or impressive to be done towards saying souls without it.

The Soldier will feel also that obedience is a means of grace and growth, helping to make strong and useful men and women, and fitting them for positions of usefulness. Those who have never learnt to obey are not fit to command.

The obedience of the Soldier must be prompt; that it, must be given at the moment. The carrying out of this principle of obedience is a duty he owes alike to God and men; that the Bible requires that he should obey those who are over him in the Lord, and that it is impossible for anything very extensive or impressive to be done towards saying souls without it.

The Soldier will feel also that obedience is a means of grace and growth, helping to make strong and useful men and women, and fitting them for positions of usefulness. Those who have never learnt to obey are not fit to command.

The obedience of the Soldier must be prompt; that it, must be given at the moment. The carrying out of this principle of obedience is a duty he owes alike to God and men; that the Bible requires that he should obey those who are over him in the Lord, and that it is impossible for anything very extensive or impressive to be done towards saying souls without it.

The Soldier will feel also that obedience is a means of grace and growth, helping to make strong and useful men and women, and fitting them for positions of usefulness. Those who have never learnt to obey are not fit to command.

The obedience of the Soldier must be prompt; that it, must be given at the moment. The carrying out of this principle of obedience is a duty he owes alike to God and men; that the Bible requires that he should obey those who are over him in the Lord, and that it is impossible for anything very extensive or impressive to be done towards saying souls without it.

The Soldier will feel also that obedience is a means of grace and growth, helping to make strong and useful men and women, and fitting them for positions of usefulness. Those who have never learnt to obey are not fit to command.

The obedience of the Soldier must be prompt; that it, must be given at the moment. The carrying out of this principle of obedience is a duty he owes alike to God and men; that the Bible requires that he should obey those who are over him in the Lord, and that it is impossible for anything very extensive or impressive to be done towards saying souls without it.

ENVOY "BREWER" BROWN

Stirs Large Audiences at Halifax. Envoy Brewer Brown has just completed a very successful campaign in the Halifax Division, finishing up at Halifax II, where he was welcomed on Wednesday, June 10th (writes Adjutant Byers). A large crowd of comrades turned out to the open-air to greet the Envoy, and his indoor welcome meeting was a rousing success. The Envoy gave a most stirring address, taking for his topic, "And they stood before the King." Three souls surrendered at this meeting.

Thursday, Friday, and Saturday the Envoy conducted special revival services. The crowds and offerings were all that could be desired. On Sunday morning there was an unusually large attendance at the Holiness meeting, and the Envoy delivered some very straight truths, which went home with telling effect. On Sunday afternoon he delivered, in the North End Baptist Church, a special lecture, entitled, "Nova Scotia's Greatest Fear," dealing with the immense indifference which he found among the professed Christians during his tour. Cape Breton and elsewhere. His message had a telling effect, and the minister regretted very much that all his congregation had not been present to hear the Envoy's stirring address.

On Sunday night, in the No. II, Citadel, the Envoy delivered a most powerful sermon on "The Unfinished Book," dealing with the life of Christ and the great Christian characters that have followed in His footsteps, taking for his text, "And whatsoever was not found written in the Book." One soul came forward at this service.

On Monday evening again in the North End Baptist Church, which was packed to the doors, the Envoy gave his famous life story, "From Frize Ring to Platform," and for over two hours held that vast audience spellbound. He took the opportunity to get in a large number of burning truths and stirring appeals to everyone to prepare to meet their God. The income at this meeting amounted to seventy dollars, and everyone who heard this address could not but feel stirred to their very heart. The total income for the six days' campaign at Halifax II, amounted to over one hundred and thirteen dollars.

Ridgeway, Ont.—On Sunday night we held a memorial service, and in spite of the intense heat, our Hall was crowded. Captain Ainsworth and Lieutenant Jones spoke on the life of our late leaders.

Red Deer, Alta.—The meetings at this Corps were well attended on Sunday, June 14th. The finances were also considerably up. Captain M. Freeman and Lieutenant Johnson, the Officers who have so recently come amongst us, are leading us on.

Fresh Air Outings for the Children.

SAVING THE TIME OF THEIR LIFE AT THE ARMY'S FRESH AIR CAMP. The Salvation Army Fresh-Air Camp opens at Clarkson, Ont., on July 1st. We hope to be able to save the time of their life.

of the late Bandmaster Humphreys, who lost his life in the "Empress" disaster. Bandmaster Hart and Major Attwell spoke, paying a tribute to the life and service of our late comrade. Mrs. Lieut.-Colonel Chandler tolled

Bandmaster Humphreys.

"Above the waves of earthly strife," and the Band played one of Brother Humphreys' favourite pieces. Colonel Chandler gave an address, drawing many lessons from the life of the promoted Bandman.

Among those present was Postmaster Rogers, while a number of postmen acted as pallbearers, as our comrade had been employed as a postman. As the procession went past the Sub-Post-Office on Queen Street West, all the employees came out and stood bareheaded till it had passed.

The remains were interred in Prospect Cemetery, and at the graveside, Mrs. Adjutant Hoddinott prayed that God would comfort the bereaved parents and relatives.

Sister Mrs. Welbourne, Hamilton, Ont.

The entire Corps has been greatly moved at the sudden decease of F. Welbourne. We have lost a good Soldier, the husband of a good wife, and the boys a good mother. The call came quickly, for she was only sick a few hours, but it found her ready. She, with her husband, had laboured a number of years as Officers in the Old Land, and their health gave way, but still they remained good Soldiers. Our comrade's last words were: "It is all right I am in God's hands."

At a largely-attended memorial service on the following Sunday night, a number of souls came out, among them a sister of our late comrade, one for whom she had prayed much.

Our departed sister leaves a husband, and five sons; three of them being Bandmen of Hamilton I. Corps.

Sister Mrs. Sherren, Point Leamington, Newfoundland.

The death of Mrs. S. Sherren, a Soldier of this Corps, occurred on May 9th, after a short illness. Although her health was never very satisfactory, her death was not expected so soon.

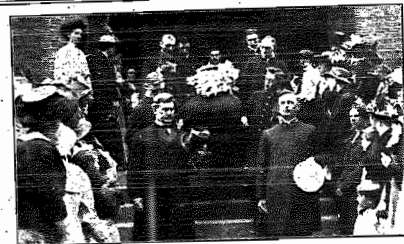

On being asked how it was with her soul she said, "It is well; I'm ready." At the memorial service the following Sunday, many comrades spoke of her words to them, and the blessing they had received in visiting her.—I. B.

about Grace, Nfld.
On Sunday, May 30th, Ensign Clayton Clayton, after a stay of five months (says W. S. B.). One soul surrendered and three backsliders returned to the fold.
Brothers Barry and Hawkins from Greensboro were with us all day on Sunday and did good service.
On June 2nd another backslider returned. Lieutenant Barry is still with us.

Vancouver V.
We have welcomed our new Officers, Captain E. Gray and Lieutenant J. Hansen.
On Saturday and Sunday, May 30th and 31st, we had good meetings. On Sunday night the Hall was well filled. The Captain, Lieutenant, and the Corps Sergeant-Major sang "Oh, Remember."
Before closing, we had the joy of seeing five souls at the Mercy Seat, two of whom were backsliders.

Bracebridge, Ont.—Since May 21, when Captain Poni and Lieutenant acted as pallbearers, as our comrade had been employed as a postman. As the procession went past the Sub-Post-Office on Queen Street West, all the employees came out and stood bareheaded till it had passed.

Blaketown, Nfld.—On Sunday night (June 7th) we held a memorial service (says J. C.). Lieutenant Parsons spoke, and many were moved to tears.

Funeral of Bandsman Humphreys. Postmen carrying the casket out of the Citadel.

Sault Ste. Marie, Ont.—On Sunday (June 7th) Mrs. Adjutant Caver conducted memorial services. In the morning one soul came to the Mercy Seat (writes P. G.). On Sunday evening every Soldier and Band and Soldiers went to the memorial service. A large crowd attended the meeting. "Face to Face" was sung by two of the comrades, and at the close of the meeting two souls sought pardon.

On Wednesday, June 11th, two souls knelt at the Mercy Seat. We had good meetings on Sunday,

Wingham, Ont.—A memorial service was held in the Town Hall on June 7th (says I. T. B.). The Hall, kindly lent for the occasion, was crowded with sympathizers of all denominations. The Corps Band was assisted by an orchestra. During the service a white-robed choir of children, under the leadership of Captain Chapman, sang "Shall we meet beyond the river?" Mayor Irwin presided, and Dr. Redmond, Rev. W. Craven, and Rev. W. Riley assisted. Rev. Mr. Perrin gave the address. We have welcomed to our Corps Lieutenant M. Roberts.

Wychwood (Toronto).—On Sunday (June 10th) the meetings, morning and night, were led by Adjutant and Mrs. Ritchie. The afternoon meeting was led by Candidate Becker, while the Band held open-air meetings (says E. G. S.).

We held a memorial service at night for the late Bandsman Mrs. Felstead and Clayds and Willie Felstead, and also Dorothy Brooks. Mrs. Adjutant Ritchie read the lesson, and spoke on the life of our son, and spoke on the life of our son, and spoke on the life of our son. At the close of the service a little boy sought and found Jesus.

Yarmouth, N.S.—A well-attended memorial service was held on Sunday (June 7th). Captain Ham was supported by the Mayor, B. B. Law, M.P., Rev. J. W. Gibson, representing the Ministerial Institute, and other prominent citizens.

Brother Raven, Hamilton III, Ont. Who was promoted to Glory Inn the "Empress of Ireland."

by the Rev. Crozier, Rev. E. Spence, and the Rev. Curtis. Appropriate music was rendered.

Weyburn, Sask.—We held a memorial service, in the Hi-Art Theatre on Sunday evening. The building was packed. Lieutenant Blondin, who, in the absence of Ensign Peacock, is left in charge, was supported by a number of comrades and friends. The City Band also rendered its services for the occasion. Several ministerial gentlemen spoke, and also a number of the comrades.

A SAD ACCIDENT.

On Friday last (Friday Cadet Way of Loo Cove) two young men were coming from a place near by, and having crossed the tide and being on shore, they began to pull up their boat, when suddenly both of them fell into the water. Their cries and screams awakened one of the young men's parents (who was in bed), and getting up, they ran to their rescue. One of them managed to reach the shore, but the other met a watery grave. The body was found and laid to rest on Monday, April 27th. Since then his father, mother, and two brothers have given their hearts to Jesus.

A little while previous to this, the brothers also, perished during the storm which raged upon the ice-fields. We sympathize with those who are bereaved of their loved ones, and pray that God will be near them in their hours of sorrow.

The Army now has 8 Soldiers and Food Deposits for men, 2 for women, 140 hotels for working men, and 12 for working women, with a total accommodation for 25,138.

Post-Office Employees standing outside Post-Office as the Funeral Procession of Bandsman Humphreys goes by.

July 1914.

Montreal IV.—On Sunday last a man consecrated himself to God at Knee-drill. One Bandsman, in the Holiness meeting, claimed the blessing of a clean heart (writes P.C.R.). At the night meeting a man and a woman sought Salvation, making four souls for the day. Mrs. Adjutant Rock is still leading us on to victory.

Fortune, Nfld.—On a recent Sunday we held memorial services for our departed comrades (writes H. M.). We also mourned the loss of our friend, Nathan Snook, who was washed off a bowsprit and drowned on May 29th.

At the end of our meeting, eight souls surrendered.

Swift Current, Sask.—The Lyric Theatre was crowded for the memorial service on Sunday. The Methodist, Presbyterian, Baptist, and Holiness Church sent representatives, and the Citizens' Band rendered its service. A duet by Comrades Fletcher and Snooks was rendered. Comrade Steaks, a personal friend of the DeLamont family, paid a high tribute to them. A letter from Rev. A. Rodway was read.

Salt Pond, Nfld.—The comrades at Seivours Island, an Outpost of Salt Pond, have built a fine Hall, which is a credit to the people (writes A. R. S.). The building was opened on June 3rd, by Adjutant Blackmore, District Officer, assisted by Adjutant Sexton, Captain Cooper, and Cadet Jennings.

Orangeville, Ont.—On Saturday and Sunday (June 13th and 14th) we had with us Brother Hanks, from Brampton. On Saturday we had two fine open-air, and the Sunday morning meeting was a treat to all of us. Sergeant Mundy took the lesson. The evening meeting was one that will never be forgotten, for five people came to the Penitent-form. Sergeant Mundy, from the Training College, is assisting our Lieutenant.

Moncton, N.B.—Our Citadel was filled for the memorial service, at which Ensign Green presided. A number of prominent local clergymen were present. A vocal trio of Sisters Smith and Green and Brother Smith was much enjoyed. Everybody stood and sang "God be with you till we meet again."

Montreal II.—The Band, in their new uniforms, accompanied by the Juniors and the "White-robed Choir," marched to the open-air on Sunday afternoon, where the Choir gave a selection. Captain Ruston was assisted, at the indoor meeting, by a number of ministers. The roll call was read and the Band played the Dead March in Sant. The Sungsters and "White-robed Choir" also sang. Sergeant-Major Harold spoke of the departed Officers.

The night meeting was very impressive. The Sungsters rendered "Crossing the Bar" and the Choir sang "When the Roll is Called."

Women's Metropolis, Montreal.—On Sunday afternoon, June 14th, we had Major Desbriat with us (writes L. M. P.). The women greatly enjoyed her visit, and her words of inspiration and help will not be forgotten. At the close of the service the Band dedicated the child of one of the boarders, Little Olive Ellen Deaton, age three months. Adjutant Taylor, our matron, who is on sick furlough, was affectionately remembered in prayer.

Clarke's Beach, Nfld.—On June 7th, in our Sunday-afternoon meeting, one man who could never believe that God could change a person's heart and desires, was so convinced that he came to the Penitent-form and got blessedly saved, and testified that he had been thoroughly converted (writes D. E.). At night, a very impressive memorial service was held. A song entitled "Will the Circle be Unbroken?" was played, and sung by Lieutenant Polley, and also "Alone With God," in memory of Adjutant Debow, who had sung it so often at the Congress last year in St. John's. Mrs. Ensign Cole then delivered a very powerful address. At the close of the meeting three souls sought the Saviour.

One man, who had been a backslider for a number of years, and who has a faithful son who is a Bandsman in the United States, got blessedly saved. The meetings of June 14th closed with two more souls.

Herring Neck, Nfld.—On Sunday, June 7th, we had with us Sergeant-Major Oakley and other comrades from Green's Pond. The meetings were a blessing to one and all.

The Ligar Street Band at Funeral Service of Bandsman Humphreys.

The Lethbridge Band at Funeral of Mrs. Brigadier Hunter.

Band Accessories.

- Drum Heads, 32-inch for 28-inch Drum ..... $2.25
- Drum Heads, 32-inch for 30-inch Drum ..... $2.75
- Drum Heads, 36-inch for 32-inch Drum ..... $4.25
- Drum Sticks, similar to those used by the Staff Band, per pair ..... $2.25
- Side Drum Sticks, ebony, per pair ..... $1.50
- Buff Drum Braces, set of thirteen, per set ..... $2.25
- Brown Drum Braces, set of thirteen, per set ..... $1.50
- Italian Cord, white, per set ..... $1.50

- Silver-plated Lyres, ..... $1.00
- Silver-plated Lyres, B slide trombone ..... $1.50
- Silver-plated Lyres, G slide trombone ..... $1.75
- Metronomes, with bell ..... $2.50
- Pocket Tape Metronomes ..... $1.50
- Cornet Mutes, bell shaped, brass ..... $1.50
- Cornet Mutes, bell shaped, silver-plated ..... $2.50
- Bandmaster's Batons, each 35c to ..... $4.00

Silver-Plated Mouthpieces for—

- |                 |        |                        |        |
|-----------------|--------|------------------------|--------|
| Cornet .....    | $1.25 | Trombone .....         | $1.50 |
| Tenor .....     | $1.25 | Eh Bass .....          | $1.75 |
| Baritone .....  | $1.50 | G Slide Trombone ..... | $1.75 |
| Euphonium ..... | $1.75 | Monstr-Bass .....      | $2.00 |

Trade Department, James and Albert Streets, Toronto.

